Hard shell and hard core: the Steel-O-Chain Plus 950/100 chain lock from Abus

- 25 mm steel sleeves are normally reserved for cable locks to secure scooters and light motorcycles. With the Steel-O-Flex™ 950, you're now in the same league when it comes to locking up your bike. Specially hardened steel in this strength are in any case a difficult target for thieves.
- The built-in ABUS Plus cylinder is also protected against manipulation, such as picking. And so that you also have a long time to enjoy your Steel-O-Flex™ 950, the keyhole disappears safely under a manual cover against dirt and corrosion.
